BANGALORE CITY MUNICIPALITY.

Notice, dated 11th October 1897.

The following Sections of the Municipal Regulations are published for general information :—

107. It shall be the duty of the occupier of every house in or near any street within the limits to which these Regulations shall be applied, to remove from his premises all night-soil, dung and other filth into carts provided by the Municipal Commissioners for the purpose of carrying away the same, and at such times and in such manner as the Municipal Commissioners may direct. Provided that if the occupier of any house shall prefer to carry away the said night-soil, dung or other filth, it shall be open to him to do so in conformity with the provisions of Section 105 of these Regulations.

Occupiers of houses to remove night-soil, &c., to carts of Commissioners.

Proviso.

108. Whoever being the occupier of a house within the limits to which these Regulations shall be applied, keeps or allows to be kept for more than twenty-four hours, or otherwise than in some proper receptacle, any dirt, dung, night-soil, filth, or any noxious or offensive matter, in or upon the roof of such house, or in or upon the roof of any out house, or in or on any yard or ground attached to, and occupied by the occupier of such house, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding ten rupees for each offence.

Penalty on occupier of a house not removing filth.

109. It shall be lawful for the Commissioners in furtherance of the last preceding sections, to give notice to the occupier of any house that they will undertake to perform through their agents the duties usually performed by sweepers and for this purpose to entertain a sufficient number of scavengers, and it shall be lawful for them to lay a cess upon every house, whose scavengering they may thus undertake to perform, not exceeding that which the inmates might reasonably be called upon to pay for the services of an ordinary sweeper.

Scavengers may be entertained by the Commissioners for the scavengering of houses.

With reference to the above the public are informed that a cess, called the scavengering cess, sanctioned by the Municipal Commissioners and approved of by Government in Proceedings No. 1763—L. F. 27-97, dated 2nd August 1897, will be levied from the 1st October 1897, on all houses paying a house-tax of and above 12 annas per annum and at present conserved by the municipality, at the following rates :—

On houses paying an assessment from--

			Rs. a. p.
12 annas to Rupee 1	per annum	.. ..	0 1 0	per month.
